PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

By the power of your Holy Spirit startle us with your Word, O God,
and awaken us to your truth,

OLD TESTAMENT

1 Kings 17:8-16

Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, 'Go now to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and live there; for I have commanded a widow there to feed you.' So he set out and went to Zarephath. When he came to the gate of the town, a widow was there gathering sticks; he called to her and said, 'Bring me a little water in a vessel, so that I may drink.' As she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, 'Bring me a morsel of bread in your hand.' But she said, 'As the Lord your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of meal in a jar, and a little oil in a jug; I am now gathering a couple of sticks, so that I may go home and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it, and die.' Elijah said to her, 'Do not be afraid; go and do as you have said; but first make me a little cake of it and bring it to me, and afterwards make something for yourself and your son. For thus says the Lord the God of Israel: The jar of meal will not be emptied and the jug of oil will not fail until the day that the Lord sends rain on the earth.' She went and did as Elijah said, so that she as well as he and her household ate for many days. The jar of meal was not emptied, neither did the jug of oil fail, according to the word of the Lord that he spoke by Elijah.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

JOYFUL NOISE AND YOUTH CHOIR ANTHEM

The First Song of Isaiah

Jack Noble White
(1938-2019)

Surely, it is God who saves me;
I will trust and not be afraid.
For the Lord is my stronghold and my sure defense,
and God will be my Savior.

Therefore, you shall draw water with rejoicing,
from the springs of salvation.
And on that day you shall say, Give thanks to the Lord,
and call upon God's name.

Make God's deeds known among the people;
see that they remember that the Lord is exalted.
Sing praises to the Lord,
for God has done great things, and this is known in all the world.

Cry aloud, inhabitants of Zion,
ring out your joy,
for the great one in the midst of you
is the Holy One of Israel.

CHILDREN'S DISMISSAL

Children through eighth grade depart for church school in the Strouse Building.

Joyful Noise will meet following church school until 11:40 a.m.

Parents, your children will be brought to you in Widener Hall.

GOSPEL

Mark 12:38-44

As he taught, he said, 'Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the market places, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets! They devour widows' houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.'

He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, 'Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on.'

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,

And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty. From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

SOULS SHOT PORTRAIT PROJECT

Commentary

This painting is a celebration of Butchie's life. In talking to his mom, I could feel how much he was loved by his family. Butchie was a father, son, brother, coach, friend. His life was full and he was full of life and humor, a good heart and a beautiful smile. I hope this painting portrays the love emanating from him and going towards him. I hope it helps in some small way, that his family will continually be enveloped in that love. I am honored to be part of this project.

Celeste Schor, artist

To us/family/friends, he was Butch or Butchie.

He was our oldest son, the oldest grandson. He was someone the family could depend on. Whenever you needed him he was there.

He was a father. He had a son and a daughter. He loved kids. He coached little league football.

He was also a clown. Boy was he funny. You could always see him with a big smile on his face. Usually because he was saying or doing something funny. We could always get a good laugh.

One of his best qualities to me is that he would always look out for or protect others. He really did not like bullies and would go out his way to help someone who was being picked on. One of the ways he got into coaching and helping out with the kids.

I hope this gives you some insight to the good guy he was. He is truly missed over here.

Shanell Peace, mother

NOVEMBER 14

BARBARA VORNDICK, M.ED.

ELIZA'S TRUE STORY

In the first biography written about the eldest daughter of President James Monroe, just published in July 2024, author Barbara VornDick replaces the limited—and erroneous—historical narrative about Eliza with the complete true story of her life, and the tragic circumstances of her death. Her devotion to family and country had been obscured and forgotten over time, but five years of searching through primary sources, including personal letters, court proceedings, ships' manifests, deeds, wills, and State Department records, revealed the true story of Eliza Monroe's life and her death as a penniless pauper; a situation that befell many women in the 1800s who found themselves at the mercy of men who controlled their access to property and prosperity. In addition to telling Eliza's story, this dynamic speaker presents a glimpse of her fascinating journey into the realm of historical research, and discusses how the discovery of documents from archives on both sides of the Atlantic, some hidden for two centuries, illuminated the facts about Eliza's life and enabled her true story to be told.

Author Barbara VornDick currently works as an Interpreter of History at James Monroe's Highland, the home of President Monroe in Albemarle County, Virginia. It was there that she first became interested in the Monroe women, and was drawn to investigate the truth about Eliza. She currently has three books published with Barnes and Noble Press.
