8855 Germantown Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

WELCOME!

Welcome to the Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill!

Whether you're a first-time guest or a long-time member, we are grateful for your presence. There's a place for you here!

See an usher for hearing devices or large-print bulletins.

Nursery care for infants through age two is available in the Strouse building—ask an usher for assistance. Children who are three are encouraged to attend Godly Play but are welcome to remain in the nursery at parental discretion.

Children's Praise Packs to aid with worship participation are available in the narthex. Please return these after worship.

All children in attendance are invited to attend Sunday School, which takes place immediately after the Children's Message. Please use the QR code to fill out a brief safety waiver for your child.

We encourage you to fill out the black friendship pads in the pews, to help us to get to know all who've shared worship with us today.

Following the 10 a.m. service, all are invited for refreshments and fellowship in Widener Hall.

We send regular email updates about worship, church life, and other events. Please contact the church office if you'd like to receive them.

Please silence all electronic devices.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: God of the mountaintop, you call us to journey with you.

People: Shine upon us, Lord.

Grant us sacred illumination, and dazzle us with your glory.

Leader: As we come before you with weary souls and exhausted bodies,

People: Transfigure our imaginations and reveal to us what is possible.

Leader: In the face of unceasing violence and endless wars,

People: Transfigure our imaginations and reveal to us what is possible.

Leader: In the midst of crushing disasters, natural and humanmade,

People: Transfigure our imaginations and reveal to us what is possible.

Leader: Move us from scarcity and cynicism and transfigure our lowly visions to reveal the abundant life of your realm.

People: Help us to keep watch so that we might leave the mountaintop inspired to do your work of transformation in the valley below.
Amen.

Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise

ST. DENIO

Please stand as you are able.*

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Almighty God, you see us as we are and know our inmost thoughts.
You know the ways we've fallen short. You know the work we've left undone, the mercy we've left ungiven, the love we've left unshared, the peace we've left unmade. You know the arrogance, pride and violence that we've chosen instead of your path of forgiveness and reconciliation.
You know who we are. Help us to see who we might be.
Forgive us, and transform us, that we might become who you imagine us to become, in your sight, and by your mercy. Amen.

Overshadow us with your Spirit
so that we may hear your Word and live as faithful disciples

OLD TESTAMENT

Exodus 34:29-35

Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him. But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them. Afterward all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the Lord had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face; but whenever Moses went in before the Lord to speak with him, he would take the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining; and Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

CHILDREN'S MOMENT AND DISMISSAL

Children through second grade depart for church school in the Strouse building.

Joyful Noise will meet following church school until 11:40 a.m.

Parents, your children will be brought to you in Widener Hall.

HYMN (seated)

TALLIS' CANON

Go with us, Lord, and guide the way, through this and every coming day,
that in your Spirit strong and true,
our lives may be our gift to you.

GOSPEL

Luke 9:28-36

Now about eight days after these sayings Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"—not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!" When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met him. Just then a man from the crowd shouted, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son; he is my only child. Suddenly a spirit seizes him, and all at once he shrieks. It convulses him until he foams at the mouth; it mauls him and will scarcely leave him. I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not." Jesus answered, "You faithless and perverse generation, how much longer must I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here." While he was coming, the demon dashed him to the ground in convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.

And all were astounded at the greatness of God.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

Something to Hold Onto

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,

And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty. From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

COVER ART curated by Rebecca Thornburgh

Titian, Transfiguration of Christ, 1560, oil on canvas, altarpiece, Church of San Salvador, Venice, Italy. Considered as the most important artist of the Italian Renaissance, Tiziano Vecellio (c. 1488/90–1576) was tremendously versatile, equally adept with portraits, landscape backgrounds, and mythological and religious subjects. The Transfiguration constitutes a pivotal moment in the life of Christ, in which his divinity is acknowledged. This episode takes place at the threshold between heaven and earth and, similarly, highlights Christ's status as both divine and human. Titian was always aware of conceiving an image in terms of its own environment; the Transfiguration is probably one of his most dramatic coups de théâtre. Commissioned as a cover for the famous silver reredos (altar screen) on the high altar of the church of San Salvador, the canvas was grossly over-painted over the centuries to hide damage from being lowered on high feast days. Restoration in 1997 revealed all the dramatic, expressive characteristics of the master's late work.

We're looking for contributions to our M&A mystery wine cellar—do you have a favorite vino to share? We're collecting offerings through noon on March 23—drop off your bottle donations at the church office. Thanks!

MARCH ART SHOW: LUCINDA LEA—PAINTINGS, OIL AND ACRYLIC

Meet the Artist Reception: Thursday, March 6, 3 p.m., free

“My life in the arts has primarily centered around dance, first as a performer, and then as a teacher, choreographer, and director of a school and dance company. My interest in painting grew out of my visual enjoyment of choreography. I sought a creative outlet that could be shared and enjoyed, and perhaps be uplifting. My love of nature has been a constant source of solace and inspiration in my life and my art. The sea, sky, shadows, mountains, sunsets, flowers, and especially birds, with their ability to navigate the air, offer endless fascinating subjects for painting, for meditation, and awe! Enjoy!”—Lucinda Lea

MARGARET MONTET

THE FAMOUS BAYEUX TAPESTRY

The famous Bayeux Tapestry is not a tapestry at all, but an embroidery from the Middle Ages! Measuring 230 feet by twenty inches, it tells the story of William the Conqueror's victory at the Battle of Hastings in 1060 which resulted in him claiming the English throne. As an historical document, it also gives the modern viewer clues to medieval warfare, life, and humor. This presentation will describe the history which inspired the tapestry/embroidery, the embroidery's history, and the medieval city of Bayeux where the tapestry is displayed today. Presenter Margaret Montet visited the tapestry/embroidery in December 2023.

Margaret Montet's narratives of place feature music, memoir, culture and occasionally genealogy. Also a college librarian, Margaret holds an MFA in Creative Nonfiction, teaches public speaking, and presents multimedia music-centered lectures at lifelong learning venues. Her creative nonfiction has been published in many journals, anthologies, and two books: Nerd Traveler (2021), and Brooklyn Family Album (2024).

ABOUT PCCH

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF CHESTNUT HILL is a lively congregation that has been serving Philadelphia and beyond since 1852. We have been located on this site since 1950. We are a congregation of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and the Presbytery of Philadelphia.

Our traditional worship service connects with contemporary approaches to questions of faith and life. We support a wide range of mission partners throughout the city and are home to a number of music groups.

Our membership is drawn from the city and surrounding communities. We aspire to be an inclusive community of faith in our work and worship together.
