Make plans to play, volunteer, or support this great event that benefits one of our mission partners, a critical urban ministry. The golfer donation is $180 per person and covers lunch, greens fees and cart, putting contest, prizes, tournament reception, and promises more of the golf, fun, and camaraderie that has become the Annual WKM Golf Outing.

Check the Golf Outing flyer on the Social Witness bulletin board for details. Classes will be offered for three different age groups:

Youth will explore how they can live out their faith, as Jesus taught, in our modern world. The middle school youth will meet during worship two to three times per month. On the remaining Sundays, youth should participate in the full worship service.

Most Sundays, we will begin Sunday School with a brief opening in the chapel.

On Sundays when Communion is served in worship, the children will return to sit with their families so that they can participate.

APRIL ART SHOW: LISA SMITH AND DENNIS IVEY

Meet the Artists reception: Friday, April 4, 4 p.m., free

Lisa Smith's primary discipline has been painting and drawing. She is a graduate of the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts (1983) and Ashford University (2013) with a BA in Education. She is now enjoying retirement from teaching and the return to her studio where a lot of time is spent producing more paintings and drawings.

Dennis E. Ivey Jr., was born September 24, 1927 in Cleveland, Ohio, but lived most of his adult life in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He attended Cleveland College and Western Reserve University (now Case Western). He is a graduate of the Griswold Institute, BS in Psychology, and received his PhD from Pacific Western University. He (briefly) studied with the late Charles Shawn Casen of Philadelphia, noted abstract artist. Working basically in acrylic and mixed medium, most of his work is amorphous, and follows the theory of free association.

The Gallery will be open for viewing Monday-Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., and before and after worship on Sundays.
