SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

8855 Germantown Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

WELCOME!

Welcome to the Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill!

Whether you're a first-time guest or a longtime member, we are grateful for your presence. There's a place for you here!

See an usher for hearing devices or large-print bulletins.

Nursery care for infants through age two is available in the Strouse building—ask an usher for assistance. Children who are three are encouraged to attend Godly Play but are welcome to remain in the nursery at parental discretion.

Children's Praise Packs to aid with worship participation are available in the narthex. Please return these after worship.

All children in attendance are invited to attend Sunday School, which takes place immediately after the Children's Message. Please use the QR code to fill out a brief safety waiver for your child.

We encourage you to fill out the black friendship pads in the pews, to help us to get to know all who've shared worship with us today.

Following the 10 a.m. service, all are invited for refreshments and fellowship, weather permitting on the front lawn otherwise in Widener Hall.

We send regular email updates about worship, church life, and other events. Please contact the church office if you'd like to receive them.

Please silence all electronic devices.

OLD TESTAMENT

Proverbs 31:10-31

A capable wife who can find? She is far more precious than jewels. The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain. She does him good, and not harm, all the days of her life. She seeks wool and flax, and works with willing hands. She is like the ships of the merchant, she brings her food from far away. She rises while it is still night and provides food for her household and tasks for her servant-girls. She considers a field and buys it; with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard. She girds herself with strength, and makes her arms strong. She perceives that her merchandise is profitable. Her lamp does not go out at night. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her hands hold the spindle. She opens her hand to the poor, and reaches out her hands to the needy. She is not afraid for her household when it snows, for all her household are clothed in crimson. She makes herself coverings; her clothing is fine linen and purple. Her husband is known in the city gates, taking his seat among the elders of the land. She makes linen garments and sells them; she supplies the merchant with sashes. Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the time to come. She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue. She looks well to the ways of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children rise up and call her happy; her husband too, and he praises her: "Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all." Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. Give her a share in the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her in the city gates.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALTER

Psalm 1

Frederick A. Gore Ousley
(1825-1899)

Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked, nor lingered in the way of sinners,
nor sat in the seats of the scornful!

Their delight is in the law of the Lord,
and they meditate on his law day and night.

They are like trees planted by streams of water, bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither;
everything they do shall prosper.

It is not so with the wicked;
they are like chaff which the wind blows away.

Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when judgment comes,
nor the sinner in the council of the righteous.

For the Lord knows the way of the righteous,
but the way of the wicked is doomed.

CHILDREN'S MOMENT AND DISMISSAL

Children through fifth grade depart for church school in the Strouse building.

Joyful Noise will rehearse at 11:10 a.m.

Parents, your children will be brought to you in Widener Hall following rehearsal.

HYMN (seated)

TALLIS' CANON

Go with us, Lord, and guide the way
Through this and every coming day,
That in your Spirit strong and true,
Our lives may be our gift to you.

GOSPEL

Mark 9:30-37

They went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, "The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again." But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him.

Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you arguing about on the way?" But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, "Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all." Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me."

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

God's Welcome

Russell Sullivan

*Jesus sat down, called the twelve, and said to them,
'Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.'
Mark 9:37*

*HYMN 327

O Word of God Incarnate

MUNICH

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,

And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty. From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever.
Amen.

OFFERING

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

John Rutter
(b. 1945)

Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace;
where there is hatred, let me bring love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,
grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love;
for it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
it is in dying that one is raised to eternal life.

*DOXOLOGY

OLD HUNDREDTH

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow, praise God, all creatures here below;
praise God above, ye heavenly host:
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

*PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING (unison)

Leader: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Let us pray.

All: Dear Lord,

We are like trees planted by streams of water that yield their fruit in season and prosper in you.
We are grateful for all that you have provided,
and we dedicate our first fruits to you and to the work of your church, now and forever.
Amen.

THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH

HAPPENING AT PCCH

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

The Session has called a meeting of the congregation for Sunday, October 6, 2024, following worship, for the purpose of electing a pastor.

UPDATE FROM THE PASTOR NOMINATING COMMITTEE

The Pastor Nominating Committee is pleased to announce that after an eleven-month search, we have made an offer to a candidate to become the next Senior Pastor and Head of Staff of The Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill, and our candidate has been enthusiastically approved by Presbytery. We couldn't be more thrilled with the candidate we have found, and think you will share our excitement!

This milestone is the culmination of the committee's painstaking screening of close to 75 candidates as we read resumes, listened to sermons, interviewed applicants by video and in person, and worked closely with a small number of the most promising candidates. The Session was informed of our decision at its meeting on September 17, and has called a Congregational Meeting for after worship on October 6, details of which you will find in the bulletin and e-news.

There is more you would like to hear and more we would like to tell you about both the candidate and the schedule of transition ahead. However, there are required steps to be taken in our Presbytery and in the Presbytery of the candidate, whose church must also be informed at the right moment. We must respect these steps and maintain confidentiality.

By late September, these steps will be completed and you will be given information about the candidate, who we feel will lead us with energy, intelligence, imagination, and love. For now, plan to be at the service of worship on Sunday, October 6 when the candidate will preach. A meeting of the congregation will follow the service when you will discuss and vote on the call of this person to be the next minister of PCCH.

We must stress the need for confidentiality about the identity of the candidate, even after you receive their introduction materials, until the candidate has had the opportunity to notify their current congregation.

In the meantime, we ask for your continued prayers now for the candidate and the candidate's church, as well as for our church.
